Conference Speakers

Hank L Belfield came to faith in Christ in 1987 when he was 16 years old. After his conversion, he felt led to train for the ministry. He attended Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA where he earned a B.S. in Pastoral Studies in 1994. He then attended Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, FL where he earned a Master of Divinity degree. Pastor Belfield's first call to ministry was in an OP church near Grand Rapids, MI. In the summer of 2002 he took a call to pastor Providence OPC in Chilhowie, VA. He and his wife, Cheryl, currently live in Chilhowie with their three children. Pastor Belfield also serves as the stated clerk of the Presbytery of the Southeast of the OPC.

Daniel Knox is pastor of Grace OPC in Sewickley, PA, having served there previously as evangelist and as associate pastor. A graduate of Pittsburgh Theological Seminary and ordained in the UPCUSA in 1979, he joined the OPC in 1984. Mr. Knox serves as a mentor in the OPC's internship program and as a member of the boards of Northwest Theological Seminary and Robinson Township Christian School. Dan and his wife Pam have four children.

Children's program will be provided.
 A collection for MRCC will be taken Sunday morning.

What people are saying about this conference...

“We enjoyed this time away from the normal responsibilities of life. The teaching was good and the surroundings peaceful. The fellowship times were also a blessing to us.”

Covenant Community OPC, Staunton

“Peace and quiet, time with my son and the blessings of God's word. Truly a great time.”

Providence OPC, Charlottesville

“The great thing about Machen is that when there are a lot of people there, you get to make new friends and its extremely fun; and when there are not a lot of people there, you can really enjoy the beauty of the place”

15-year-old covenant child

“We enjoyed the teaching, food, fellowship, and God's creation - and if I am being honest in that order.”

Knox OPC, Silver Spring

“Beautiful! The fellowship is awesome; great opportunity to really get to know other members of the Body of Christ. Wonderful teaching and food, too!”
